Oether You've earned it. Now live it!

A home is no more just a roof over one's head, nor is it merely four walls to protect you from the elements and assure a sense of security. Today, a home also symbolises Dreams, Status, Lifestyle... and more.

dether

You've earned it. Now live it!

Aether, as the name suggests, is literally an abode for the Gods. Although conveniently located in the heart of Mumba's latest hub of suburban living, its aesthetic design ensures that every apartment is your very own castle in the sky, blissfully insulated from the hustle and bustle below.

The residential spaces begin around 100 feet above the ground, majestically perched atop multi levels of podium parking, offering you and your family a breathtaking view of the city below.
