You ask me why I dwell in the green mountain;

I smile and make no reply for my heart is free of care.

As the peach-blossom flows down stream and is gone into the unknown,

I have a world apart that is not among men.

I will look at cliffs and clouds

With quiet eyes,

Watch the wind bow down the grass,

And see the grass rise.

And when lights begin to show

Up from the town,

I will mark which must be mine,

And then start down!
