

THE TOP VIEW OF LIFE

Start taking a top view of life.

This phrase works like a charm and you know it too well. It's the one that helped you move out of the cubicle into the corner office. Helped you trade your economical car for an exorbitant set of wheels. And now, it's the one that will help you make that statement of arrival. Welcome to the 'Zrickside' an equidistant address for those who believe in taking the top view of life. Situated in Sahakar Nagar, the heart of Pune. The residences here are for those who seek comfort, convenience and equidistance.

2000 sq.ft. Anything less would have been a compromise.

For someone like you, space is not something you seek outside your home, but it's what you need within. And we know it. That's why your home here is designed to offer you unfathomable space in today's day and age. So whether you fill it with designer lounges or tie set up your private golf course, it's all left to you.

Spying on your neighbours is not rude. It's called discovering a new hobby.

And the hobby is called bird watching to be precise. One look outside your private terrace and you'll realise what we are talking about. Majestic peacocks, migratory flamingoes and a lot of other such exotic birds, all of them your neighbours. So get those pair of binoculars out and spend a lazy day at home, just watching your neighbours.

Yes we went a little overboard, but it was necessary.

Your bathroom is not just another room in your home, it's your own little private space, and we've treated it exactly like that. With designer fittings and imported tiles, this is a few notches above anything else out there.
