A Life Apart

Jeevan Sarita

Distinct

Homes are essentially the same; it is the residents who make each distinct.

Elite

The mark of having made it in life is one that is hard to ignore.

Plush

The light of success is evident in many ways; but its radiance is best at home.

Worthy

Few things match the feeling that you get when you soak in accomplishments.

Jeevan Sarita

Owning a home is a momentous occasion. More so when the home you own is well worth the wait. A home that is an opulent testament to your hard work and achievements; a home that bears testimony to your caliber and standing. Jeevan Sarita is one such edifice. A private space that pampers you and your loved ones, helping you rejuvenate, rediscover and renew your idea of life. When we, at Arkade Group, were entrusted with re-imagining Jeevan Sarita, it struck us as being a chance to create a fitting tribute to the need to pamper life.

For the Future,
For the Better.

An organisation is like a dream in more ways than one. What begins as one man's dream morphs over time, to form a collective vision driven by the efforts of a multitude of people. Arkade Group is one such dream, envisioned by the young and dynamic Amit Jain and his team who have garnered experience, respect and presence in a remarkably short period of time. The group is on a journey that is picking pace by the day, gifting structural and aesthetic accomplishments to the city. Be it a new vision being realised from scratch or the reimagining of an old one, the group has always pushed its own limits, bettering itself.

Standing at the threshold of a momentous turn, Arkade Group looks to the future with a newfound vigour, one that is the result of sustained success. We are for the future, for the better.

Road No. 2, Tejpal Scheme

In a city, the beauty and serenity of a locality is mostly defined by the proximity of Nature and its distance from the city's hubbub. Road No. 2 in Vile Parle (E) is one of those roads in Mumbai that are low and far between. Adorned with trees that act as a natural noise barrier and all that, the locality is something every Mumbaikar would wish to live in. The place has a rich history too. A wealthy businessman, Shri Gokuldas Tejpal, bought a huge piece of land near the Vile Parle railway station (E) in the early 1900s and built a grand bungalow called Mor Bungalow. Thereafter, many families bought land and constructed bungalows and houses in Vile Parle (E). In fact, the Indian National Congress had even held its inaugural session at the Gokuldas Tejpal Hall on December 27, 1985.

Joggers Park

Fitness is increasingly becoming the number one concern in cities. Unhealthy lifestyles and the lack of fitness avenues are contributing to the overall lowered health levels of city dwellers. Jeevan Sarkis is located in close proximity to an elaborate, tree-lined joggers park, one that goes a long way in ensuring a drive for well-being among the dwellers.

A grand entrance.

When you walk into a dream, your entry should be grand. That was our thought as we designed this exquisite lobby.

Terrace Garden

Who said gardens are meant just for the lower levels? Terraces can have them too, you know.

Sky Deck

With a placement that brings you closer to the sky, the sky deck also offers you an unmatched view.

Lobbies that allure.

We take our lobbies seriously and achieve a sense of pride when they are appreciated. This is a grand entrance lobby envisioned and executed for another one of our projects in Vile Parle, Mahant.

Elevated Garden

An elevated garden for your walks and talks.

Gymnasium

A state of the art gymnasium to ensure a healthy and active lifestyle.

Car Lift & Car Parking

The project has been allotted abundant car parking, no more hunting for parking space. What's more, there are dedicated car lifts to lead your cars to their lots.

Nestled in Matunga, Wallace Fortuna plays host to the twin towers Opus & Ajus. Housing a handful of highly exclusive, plush apartments, the twin beauties grace the prime South Mumbai skyline with an irresistible charisma. Reviving, re-vitalizing and refreshing yourself is never a problem, what with all the recreational facilities. Location-wise, it doesn't get any better. With access to Central, Western & Harbour areas, close proximity to an array of arterial roads and access points, to say you are well connected would be an understatement. Add to that the world-class schools, medical facilities and malls scattered nearby, welcome to Utopia!
